1987 MERCY SCHOOL OF NURSING

Dedication

When we first came to Mercy as Freshmen we heard some of the comments upperclassmen made about instructors: some bad things but the majority was good. At this point we thought we would never have these instructors or experience future life at Mercy. Well, needless to say, we made it. Although we will remember other instructors we have had, one will always stand out in our minds. When we said we couldn't, she said we could. When we thought no one remembered what it was like to be a student, she assured us she did. When we needed help she was there as an instructor but also as a friend. You comforted, encouraged and stood beside us. Your presence radiated reassurance and understanding. We, the graduating class of 1987, proudly dedicate this edition of the Mercilite to:
Mrs. Patricia Campbell.

A Nurse's Prayer

When I falter, give me courage.
When I tire, renew my strength.
When I weaken because I'm human,
Inspire me on to greater length.
If doctors and patients become demanding,
And days are too short for all my duty,
Help me remember I chose to serve,
to do so with grace, and spiritual beauty,
In humility Lord, I labor long hours—
and though I sometimes may fret;
My mission is Mercy—abide with me,
that I may never forget.

Lisa Joyce Blair

What lies behind us and What lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Janet Lynnette Bledsoe

If I can stop one heart from breaking,
I shall not live in vain.
If I can ease one life the aching,
Or cool one pain,
Or help one fainting robin
Unto his nest again,
I shall not live in vain.

Emily Dickinson

Dana Lynn Chappell

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Barbara Suzanne Collie

So often I sit and think about the way things were—
The fun and friendships, the joy we all had
and the times of just being together . . .
Of course there were some days
that we wondered how we made it.
But our friendship helped us through.
Now we may be separated,
but the band is still there.
Friendship holds us together.

Joyce Brink

Anna Mashal Fleming

Each day is a new beginning . . .
Another chance to learn more about ourselves,
To care more about others,
to laugh more than we did,
to accomplish more than we thought we could,
to be more than we were before.

Thank you Mom, Dad, Mike, Melanie, and Jimmy for all your love and support. I love you all very much.

Molly Elaine Greene

To be a nurse is to walk with God
Along the path that the Master trod;
To soothe the achings of human pain,
To faithfully serve for little gain.
To lovingly do the kindly deed,
A cup of water to one in need.
A tender hand on a fevered brow,
A word of cheer to the living now;
To teach the soul through its body's woe,
Ah! this is the way the Lord would go.
O white-capped girls in dresses of blue,
The great Physician is working through you!

A.H. Lawrence

Thanks Mother and Dad for all the love and support you have always given me, especially the past 3 years. You have helped me make my dream of being a nurse come true. I LOVE YOU!

William Harry Grey

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest! if you must—but never quit.
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won if he'd stuck it out;
Stick to your task though the pace seems slow—
You may succeed with one more blow.
Success is failure turned inside out—
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt—
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit—
It's when things seem worst that YOU MUSTN'T QUIT.

Kimberly Dare Hipp

When little things would irk me, and I would grow
Impatient with my dear ones, make me know
How in a moment joy can take its flight
And happiness be quenched in endless night.
Keep this thought with me all the livelong day
That I may guard the harsh words I might say
When I would fret and grumble, fiery hot,
At trifles that tomorrow are forgot—
Let me remember, Lord, how it would be
If these, my loved ones, were not here with me

Tamara Ann Mashewske

People may come
And people may go
But memories live
FOREVER!

Susan Lorraine McCaughtry

When you get what you want in the struggle for self
And the world makes you Queen for a day,
Then go to the mirror and look at yourself
And see what the girl has to say.
For it isn't your mother, your father or husband
Whose judgement on you must pass,
The person whose verdict counts most in your life
Is the girl staring back from the glass.
She's the person to please
never mind all the rest,
For she is with you clear to the end;
And you've passed your most dangerous
and difficult test
If the girl in the glass is your friend.
You may be like Jack Horner and chisel a plum
And think you are a wonderful girl,
But the girl in the glass says you are a bum
If you can't look her straight in the eye.
You may fool the wide world
down the pathway of years
And get pats on the back as you pass
But the final regard will be headaches and tears
If you've cheated the girl in the glass.

Allison Smith McLean

Oh! for the life of girls in white,
They answer buzzers day and night.
Buzz,Buzz,Buzz is all they hear,
They faithfully tend to someone dear.
What I would really like to know,
is where they get their go,go,go,
Up the hall and back again,
Only they know where they've been.
The chores are many as we can see,
But the energy-plus still puzzles me.
There is still time left for pleasant smiles
After walking all these miles.
Their pay won't show just reward,
But as we know there is a Lord.
He watches all both day and night,
He won't forget these girls in white.

Jenny Ellen Milstead

Let me do my work each day
And if the darkened hours of anxiety overcome me,
May I not forget the strength that comforted me
In the desolation of other times.
May I still remember the bright hours that found me
Walking over the silent hills of earlier days,
Or dreaming on the margin of the quiet river . . .
When I vowed to have courage amid the tempests of the changing years
Spare me from bitterness, from the sharp passions of unguarded moments
May I not forget that poverty and true riches are of the spirit.
Though the world knew me not, may my thoughts and actions be such
As shall keep me friendly with myself . . .
Give me a few friends who will love me for what I am;
And keep ever burning before my vagrant steps
The kindly light of hope. And though age and infirmity overtake me,
And I come not within sight of the castle of my dreams,
Teach me still to be thankful for life
And for times olden memories that are good and sweet;
And may the evening's twilight find me gentle still.
Max Ehrmann

The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen
or even touched.
They must be felt
with the heart.

Lisa Yolanda Thomas

There are always two sides, the good and the bad,
The dark and the light, the sad and the glad—
But in looking back over the good and the bad
We're aware of the number of good things we've had—
And in counting our blessings we find when we're through
We've no reason at all to complain or be blue—
So thank God for good things He has already done,
And be grateful to Him for the battle's you've won,
And know that the same God who helped you before
Is ready and willing to help you once more—
Then with faith in your heart reach out for God's Hand
And accept what He sends, though you can't understand—
For Our Father in heaven always knows what is best,
And if you trust in His wisdom your life will be blest,
For always remember that whatever betide you,
You are never alone for God is beside you.

Life holds many treasures
But what you do with them is what counts.

Donna Lynn Worick

What is it to be a graduate?

It is to be in recovery from the horror of final exams.

It is to be in shock at the dignity of academic regalia that is self-fitted.

It is to be in trepidation of the challenges that loom in the distance—alien, awesome, ahead.

What is it to be a graduate?

It is to be a nostalgic looking back at the past with all its loves, hates, successes, failures, aspirations, and memories.

It is to be a visionary looking toward the future with the dream of all it may hold.

It is to be a realist standing at the crossroads where past and future meet and fuse in the spotlight on the present.

What is it to be a graduate?

It is to stand on a pinnacle and perceive the fluidity of life: its flow of dailiness up to this moment of triumph; its flow from this moment back into dailiness.

Ruth Vaughn

A Night to Remember

Senior I Wills

I Sherry Arnold being of tortured mind and unsightly body do hereby leave my job of taking care of Mrs. Moore to Lisa V. I leave my hard work, exhaustion, laughter and tears to Hope B., Lisa V., and Linda L. I leave my thanks for further anatomy classes on the male species and friendship to Lisa, Hope, Linda and Janet. I leave my thanks for getting me through the worst bouts of depression to Mrs. McConneyhead. I sadly but gratefully leave Mercy with fond memories and glad tidings.

I Lisa Blair being of poisoned mind and Brent—wanting body do hereby bequeath to: Jenny and Molly tickets to next years haunted house, to Suzanne a date with Brent, to Susie a midnight talk with the Sisters, a big round of applause to anyone who can order a Domino's Pizza after hours and not get caught, a big "Thank You" to Mrs. Holliday and congratulations to all who make it through Mercy.

I Janet Bledsoe being of sound mind and body, leave the final exam song "I don't care anymore" by Phil Collins to the struggling freshmen and juniors. To Paula Bauer—may Laurie Anderson fill the halls for the class of '88.

I Suzanne Collie being of weary mind and body entrust the "Peeping Tom" tradition in the rich neighborhood to Paula B., Lisa B., and Susan N. To Janet B., thanks for being such a great friend. To Mashal, "I'm positive" she knows how I feel about her. To Donna, thanks for always being willing to talk anytime of the day. To Allison, thanks for giving me the information about this place and for being my friend.

I Mashal Fleming being of jam packed mind and caffeinated body, will take more with me than I came with. I leave my love and appreciation to the Class of '87 for all the times we've been through together. To the Class of '88 and '89 I leave all my best wishes for your future days at Mercy.

I Molly Greene being of exhausted mind and to much body, leave to Alecia the "joys" of Editor. To Marsha and Dana I leave the wish that your Senior year will be as great as mine. To Jenny, I just want to say thanks for being there to laugh and cry with me. You're the best friend anyone could have. To anyone who gets extremely homesick, the ability to go home most every weekend (@ 70mph) and not get caught. To Mrs. Holliday, an empty chair and a big thanks for her friendship, listening ear and frequent pep talks. To Pat Campbell I leave the wish that she will always have one of Mike's "emergency" checks. I also leave Mercy sadly, BUT WILLING, with many memories and friends and the knowledge that these have been the best 3 years of my life.

I Kim Hipp being of psychotic mind and debilitated body leave the following to those who have survived Mercy to this date: To Bonnie, my various household skills (cleaning toilet, washing dishes). Also all my love and thanks for being such a wonderful friend. To Janet B. "the dawg"—my ability to experience new, exciting methods of "Oh, Oh, my gosh". I wuv you JB. To Paula B. "my little sister"—more late night trips to Krispy Kreme and best wishes for your future (Lance). A big congratulations to anybody that breaks into the school after curfew and isn't imprisoned for it.

I Tamara Mashewske being of sound body and semi-sound mind, bequeath my senior classes to my dear little sister Kim C., my crazy days and nights to Tammy H. and my long weekend nights to Lola S. who would never go dancing. You'll need it next year.

I Allison McLean being of sound mind? Well, anyway . . . I leave to Kim and Scott a copy of my favorite nursing journal by Alex somebody to do with as they see fit. Knowing these 2 will put it to good use. To Suzanne I leave my regrets. I'm truly sorry that you did not reach your long term goal before your graduation. I also leave her a warning stay away from my mantle, my urn and my husband. To Janet B. I leave a copy of my favorite journal (although I'm sure you have no need for it). I also leave her a years supply of Macrochantin for whatever ails you. To Mo I leave a years supply of coffee and 'No Doz' to use PRN. To Donna I leave an automatic silencer for her alarm clock so she won't wake the whole neighborhood. To Mashal I leave 200 dozen heads of lettuce to do with what she does best. To all others God Bless.

I Jenny (Milly) Milstead being of necrotic mind and lethargic body, do hereby bequeath to Dana H. my place in the Senior Class, all the IV meds in Peds, a lop sided toilet, and all the fun and happy memories we shared. You're a great suitemate. To Alecia I leave all the perverted men of Charlotte. To Molly and Lisa I leave memories of 3 long difficult years together filled with happy memories and hope that we will stay the best of friends. To Pat Campbell I leave all the pregnant women of Charlotte and all the charge cards and Mike's credit cards she can get her hands on. To Mrs. Moore I leave all the necks to check on Mondays. To the instructors and my fellow classmates: I leave Mercy with the fondest memories and want to thank you all for making these 3 years so rewarding and the best in my life.

I Bonnie Roberson being of unsound mind and exhausted body do hereby leave the juniors and freshmen lots of luck and more long nights of studying and early mornings of clinical. To my fellow classmates I leave wishes for the best and lots of love. Thanks for 3 years I'll hopefully never forget, Mercy.

I Lisa Thomas being of weary body and strained eyes leave my little sister Dana H. all the long nights studying and the saying "Do you think I've studied enough?" To Pat Campbell I leave all the furs and lavish clothing Mike will let her have. To all the freshmen I leave Mrs. Moore's famous saying "Have you checked your bowel sounds yet?" To Molly and Jenny I leave all the love and best wishes. Thanks for always being there to share in the tears and joys of nursing school. To each of my fellow classmates I wish you the best in your career as nurses. To all my instructors thanks for being there to share in the most trying but rewarding years of my life.

I Maureen Tibbetts being of sound mind and tired body bequeath my nights at Panamas to Paula and Marsha, my love for dancing to Lola and my best wishes to the rising Juniors and Seniors.

I Donna Worick being of exhausted, fatigued and weary body and intrigued mind do hereby leave Mercy with many cherishable memories. To the greatest sweet-mate ever (Lisa B) I leave the ability to fall in love and the best of luck. To Angie G. I leave her Lisa to take care of and watch after. To the Class of '88, the best of luck (because you'll need it!!).

Annual Staff

Molly Greene, Editor

In our three years at Mercy, we have met with frustration, excitement and most of all, memories. As you look through this yearbook now and in years to come, I hope it will bring back many happy memories for each of you. A special thanks to Mr. Elkins for her support and to Alecia Mason and Jenny Milstead for the long, tedious nights of help. My gratitude to each and everyone of you who helped to make our 1987 Mercilite a reality.
